"...human persons are not primarily or for the most part thinkers, or even believers. Instead, human persons are – fundamentally and primordially – lovers... we are fundamentally desiring creatures."

*James K.A. Smith, Desiring the Kingdom,
p. 40-41*

7

Isaiah 55:2 ESV

Why do you spend your money for that which is not bread, and your labor for that which does not satisfy?

Psalms 63:1 ESV

O God, you are my God; earnestly I seek you;
my soul thirsts for you;
my flesh faints for you,
as in a dry and weary land where there is no water.

13

Psalms 63:5 ESV

My soul will be satisfied as with fat and rich food,
and my mouth will praise you with joyful lips,

Zephaniah 3:19 ESV
Behold, at that time I will deal with all your oppressors.
And I will save the lame
and gather the outcast,
and I will change their shame into praise and renown in all the earth.

"Simon hungered for good things – for personal righteousness and for God's people to be restored in their own land with the Messiah as their king. But then he met Jesus, who was the answer to all those things, which is why Simon the Zealot became Simon the Satisfied, having his desires and pursuits reordered and transformed by the One he was following.

"And the result was a quieting contentment found nowhere else on earth.
Not in a political party.
Not in money.
Not in relationships.
Not in accomplishments or accolades or Instalikes.
Not in good health or a long life.
Only in Jesus."

27

Do you want to be satisfied?
What are you hungry for?
How are you trying to feed that hunger that isn't working?
Will you bring this hunger to Jesus so that He can satisfy you more than anything else?
