Ezekiel.jpg

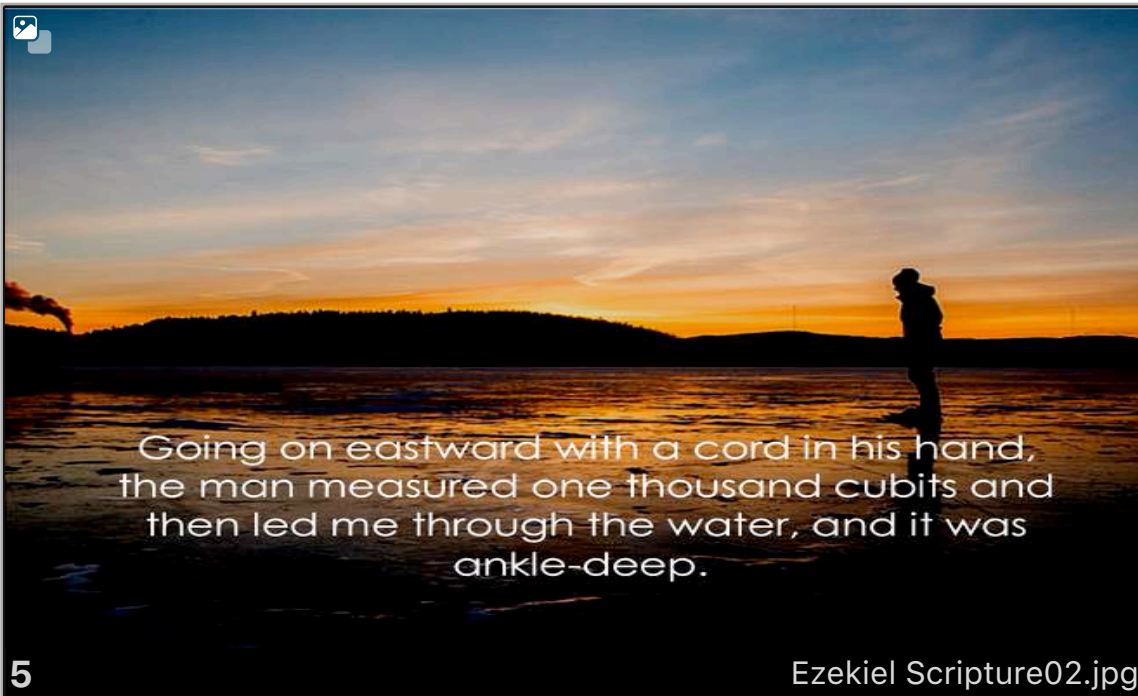

Then he brought me
back to the entrance of the temple; there water was flowing from below the entryway of the temple toward the east ...

... and the water was trickling out on the south side.

—Ezekiel 47:1– 2

4

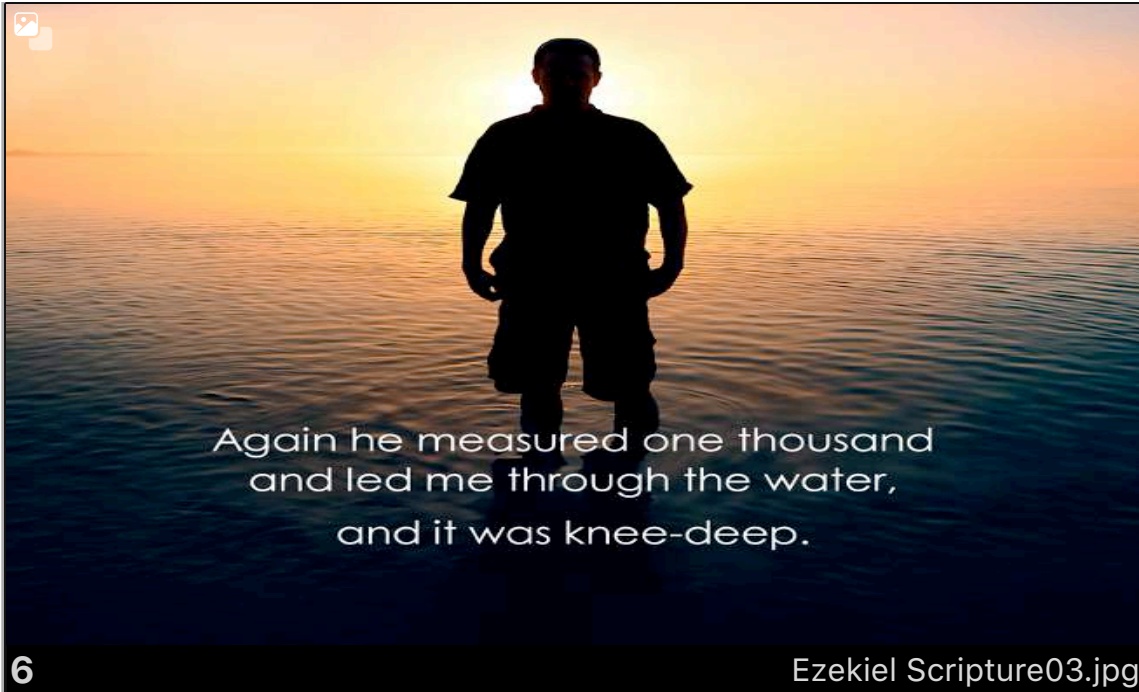

Ezekiel Scripture01.jpg

Going on eastward with a cord in his hand, the man measured one thousand cubits and then led me through the water, and it was ankle-deep.

5

Ezekiel Scripture02.jpg

Again he measured one thousand and led me through the water, and it was knee-deep.

6

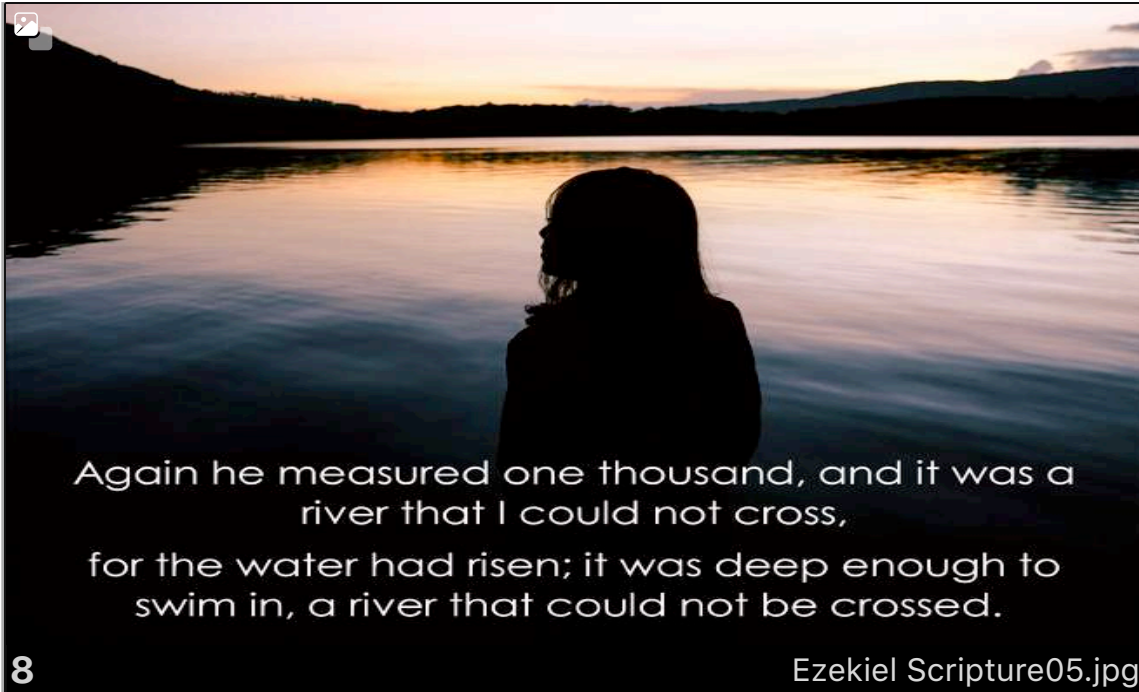

Ezekiel Scripture03.jpg

Again he measured one thousand and led me through the water, and it was up to the waist.

7

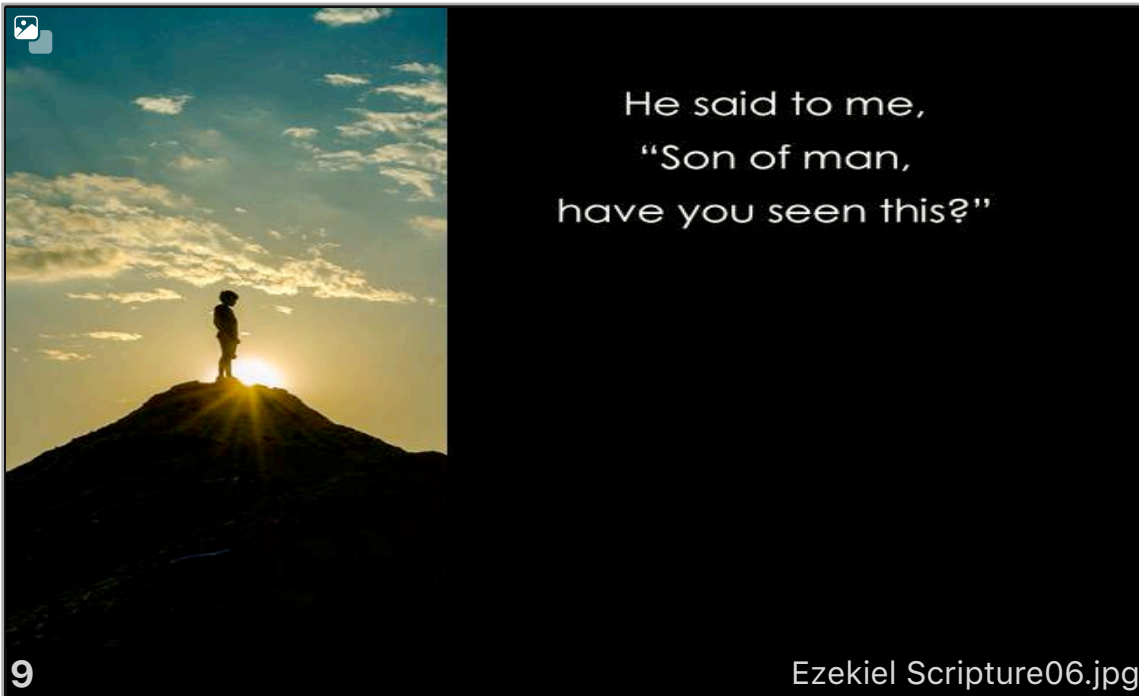

Ezekiel Scripture04.jpg

Again he measured one thousand, and it was a river that I could not cross, for the water had risen; it was deep enough to swim in, a river that could not be crossed.

8

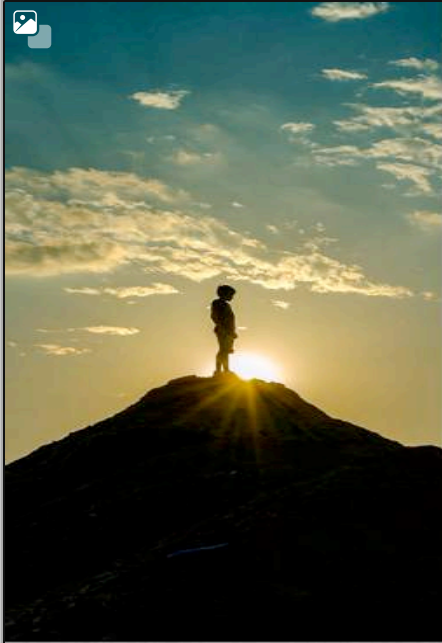

Ezekiel Scripture05.jpg

He said to me,
"Son of man,
have you seen this?"

9

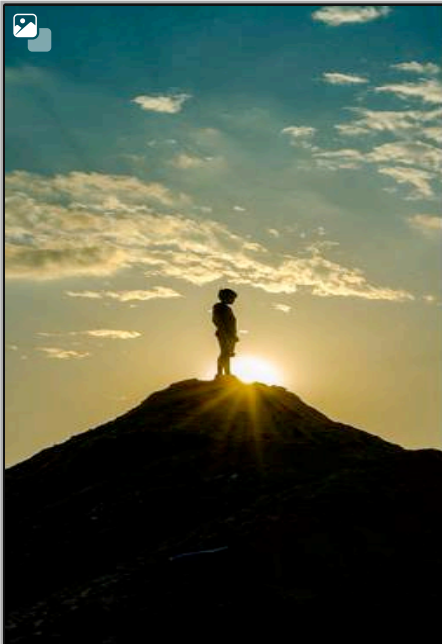

Ezekiel Scripture06.jpg

10

Then he led me back along the bank of the river. As I came back, I saw on the bank of the river a great many trees on the one side and on the other.

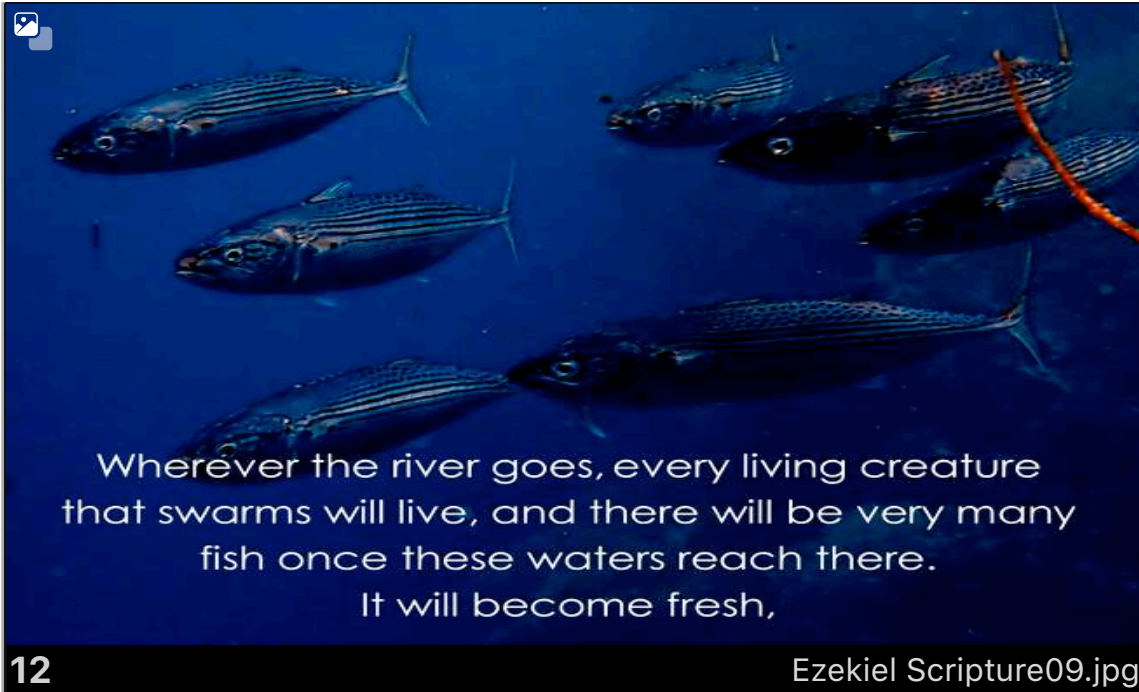

Ezekiel Scripture07.jpg

He said to me,
“This water flows toward the eastern region and goes down into the Arabah, and when it enters the sea, the sea of stagnant waters, the water will become fresh.

Ezekiel Scripture08.jpg

Wherever the river goes, every living creature that swarms will live, and there will be very many fish once these waters reach there.
It will become fresh,

12

Ezekiel Scripture09.jpg

and everything will live where the river goes.

13

Ezekiel Scripture10.jpg

On the banks, on both sides of the river, there will grow all kinds of trees for food.

Their leaves will not wither nor their fruit fail, but they will bear fresh fruit every month, because the water for them flows from the sanctuary.

Their fruit will be for food and their leaves for healing.
